Dear Mr. Langenfeld:

One of my happiest duties as Editor & Publisher of Choice is announcing publication of our annual Outstanding Academic Title list. It gives me great pleasure to report that the following ELT Press title has been selected for inclusion in Choice's annual OAT list, which will appear in the January 2014 issue of Choice Magazine:

Dillingham, William B. Rudyard Kipling: life, love, and art.

This year's Outstanding Academic Title list includes 663 books and electronic resources chosen by the Choice editorial staff from among the 7,082 titles reviewed by Choice during the past year. Of these, 624 are print products; the remaining 39 are electronic. These outstanding works have been selected for their excellence in scholarship and presentation, the significance of their contribution to the field, and their value as important—often the first—treatment of their subject. Comprising almost 9 percent of the titles reviewed by Choice during the past year, and less than 3 percent of the more than 25,000 titles submitted to Choice during this same period, Outstanding Academic Titles are truly the “best of the best.” As always, only a select group of publishers and authors are represented on such a list. Congratulations to you and your colleagues on this outstanding achievement.

Please note that we will not be publicly releasing this year's Outstanding Academic Title list until January 1. We ask your assistance in keeping this information confidential until that time.

Again, congratulations on an outstanding publishing achievement.

Sincerely,

Mark Cummings
Editor & Publisher
